candidates for this office and of the most appropriate division of our territory into districts ; and

WHEREAS, It gives one strength and confidence and adds to his efficiency in any position to know that he is the choice of a majority of his brethren ; and

WHEREAS, The Pastors are likely to rally with more enthusiasm to a Presiding Elder whom they themselves elect, and to sustain him more cordially, than to one who is appointed without consulting their wishes, or, as is sometimes the case, contrary to their expressed choice ; and

WHEREAS, There is no reason for the ballot in civil government, or in the other elective offices of the Church, which does not apply with equal or greater force to the election of Presiding Elders ; and

WHEREAS, The choice by ballot to official positions in the M. E Church has, so far as tried, been highly satisfactory, and has proved the Methodist Ministry eminently worthy of the ballot ; and

WHEREAS, All the temporal interests of Methodist ministers, including home, salary, associations, reputation, and sometimes even health and life, are largely in the hands of the appointing power, and may be disposed of and controlled without their consent or knowledge ; and

WHEREAS, The privilege of being represented, and of saying who shall give advice as to what disposition shall be made of interests so important to the parties concerned, ought not to be denied ; Therefore,

Resolved, That we respectfully request the General Conference to be convened at St. Louis, Mo., May 1st., 1876, to so change the Discipline as to make the Presiding Elders elective by the Annual Conferences.

Resolved, That we also request that the Discipline be so changed as to make it the duty of the presiding Bishop, with the Presiding Elders, to form the Districts subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.

J. S. Smart conducted the opening religious services.

The journal of the morning session was read and approved.

Wm. H. Shier presented the following resolution, signed by Wm. H. Shier and J. S. Smart, and it was adopted:

Resolved, That we respectfully request the ensuing General Conference to make provision for the introduction of Lay delegation into our Annual Conferences.

On motion, the second resolution relating to the formation of Districts, offered by J. S. Smart, Sept. 1, was taken from the table and passed, the preamble to the two resolutions given in the journal of the session, September 1, 1875, being withdrawn by the mover. The resolution as adopted, is as follows:

Resolved, That we request that the Discipline be so changed as to make it the duty of the Presiding Bishop, with the Presiding Elders, to form the Districts subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.

The paper as thus amended was adopted as a whole.

R. S. Pardington offered the following resolution, which passed unanimously by a rising vote:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, That we hereby express our gratitude to Rev. Dr. McEldowney and J. Horton, and their friends of the City of Flint, for the very generous manner in which they have entertained the members of the Conference. Also to the Managers of the Flint and Pere Marquette R. R., and the Detroit & Milwaukee R. R. and Canada S. R. R. for their favors of half-fare rates to the members of the Conference.

The Presiding Elder of Adrian District was authorized, by order of the Conference, to take collections during the year for the benefit of the church at Addison.

The following resolution was passed, it being accompanied by thanks to D. B. Tracy for similar services during the present session :

Resolved. That Rev. D. B. Tracy be requested to make arrangements with the several railroad companies for reduced rates of travel over their roads to and from the seat of Conference at its next session.

Reports from the Committees on Church Extension, on Sunday Schools and Tracts, and on Freedmen, were made and adopted. [See Reports, O, P and Q.]

The consideration of the second question was resumed. Alvah G. Blood being duly recommended by Flint District Conference, and Eugene D. Daniels being duly recommended by Washington Quarterly Conference, Romeo District, were received on trial.

The following additional report from the Committee on Nominations, which that Committee had been authorized to make, was confirmed by the Conference :

Fraternal Delegate to the Presbyterian Synod of Michigan—Wm. E. Bigelow.

To the Congregational Conference in Michigan—T. J. Joslin.

To the Baptist Association in Michigan—J. F. Davidson.

Detroit Annual Conference,

To the Michigan Conference of the Methodist Church—Robert Bird.

The following resolution, offered by S. Reed and T. C. Gardner, was laid on the table:

Resolved, That this Conference do most respectfully request the next General Conference to abolish the chapter of the Discipline on District Conferences.

Bishop Harris submitted the following for record:

This is to certify, that DeWitt C. Challis, a preacher of one year's standing on Trial in the Detroit Conference, having been designated for the mission in Bulgaria, and having been elected under the Missionary Rule to the Order of both Deacons and Elders, by the said Conference, was by me ordained to the Order of Deacons, at Flint, Michigan, on the seventh day of September, 1875; and at the same place, on the 8th day of September, 1875, being assisted in the service by several Elders, I ordained him to the Order of Elders in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Done at Flint, Michigan, September 8th, 1875.

WILLIAM L. HARRIS.

It was ordered that after the reading of the appointments, the Conference stand adjourned. The appointments were then read, and the Twentieth Session of Detroit Annual Conference was adjourned, sine die—Bishop Harris pronouncing the Benediction.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

PERIODICALS.

Report, as follows :

On the whole, we are well pleased with the periodical literature of our church. Our periodicals seem to elicit the attention and command the respect of the secular and religious press of the country more now than ever before. In this respect we are advancing. This fact indicates a policy. There are two policies, either of which may be adopted by the managers of our papers. They may strive to compete with other religious periodicals in intellectual and literary excellence, and to secure from the public a recognition of our papers as the equals of the best. This is one policy. On the other hand, they may aim, as the first and most important purpose, to intensify the religious life of the church, and supply their readers with real spiritual bread. These two policies can be but partially worked together. That which meets the demands of the highest standards in intellectual and literary merit is not appreciated and enjoyed by the many—it is for the few; and yet those few determine the grades of excellence. On the other hand, that which will do the most good to the greatest number is not that which critics will pronounce most excellent. The two policies are, therefore, in a degree incompatible. Our editors endeavor, by variety of matter, to suit the tastes of all; and in this respect they are as successful as they could well be. But as far as they aim to satisfy one class, they lose in the estimation of the other, so that by such a course the highest excellence in the estimation of either cannot be reached.

If our aim is to compete with others in literary excellence, we certainly ought to have only a few periodicals, and concentrate all our energies and all our means upon them. But the style of paper necessary to success in that competition would leave a large class of people in our church spiritually unfed, and leave an opening—indeed, create a demand for less ambitious papers, and papers which, according to the standards of literary criticism, would be considered of a lower grade.

Our papers are now more religious than those with which they compete, yet many of our members would be better pleased if they were still more religious. Complaints are made that one of the distinguishing doctrines of our church is almost entirely excluded from our regular weekly periodicals.

This is one of the reasons assigned for the existence of those periodicals which are established for the special advocacy of the doctrine of holiness. We are not surprised that editors deem it necessary to exclude controversial articles, and articles which discuss the theology and philosophy of this doctrine, but articles which aim to show the necessity of a higher Christian life, and to awaken a longing for it, are, if otherwise worthy, always in place in a religious paper. A large portion of our work, as ministers of the gospel of Christ, is to lift the people on to a higher plane of religious experience, or to keep them from falling into spiritual deadness. In this work the press can materially aid us. But there are difficulties in the way of this. The preaching of eighteen hundred years has made purely religious themes familiar; it is not easy writing any thing new upon them, or presenting them in forms so new as to render them fresh and interesting. Contributions flood the editorial offices, but few of them are gems of real spiritual lustre. Editors have to use such materials as they can procure. It is not for editors so much as for contributors, that we here say, that too much of the space in our weeklies is at times occupied with the discussion of questions of ecclesiastical polity. The mass of the people have little interest in these discussions: a feeling of discontent may be by them produced, in the church: they do not improve our reputation among others.

The authorities have endeavored to meet the diversities of taste by the establishment of different periodicals. The Quarterly holds its high position, and, in its editorial department at least, is acknowledged by all to be the peer of any thing of the kind in this country. The Ladies' Repository more than holds its own. The Golden Hours seems designed to supply a want, and it is more and more adapting itself to its sphere, and receiving increased favor. Our Sunday School periodicals have no superiors. We still regard the Northwestern as our paper, the paper of the Northwest, of which we are a part. Its editor is indefatigable in labor and enterprise, and successfully meets his responsibility. We hope that no private enterprise will be allowed to interfere with its prosperity, or to diminish its circulation. But, without doing this, it is possible that a demand for a cheaper paper and for greater detail in local religious news may be met.

PARSONAGES.

WHEREAS, The want of comfortable and well furnished parsonages is a source of a great expense and inconvenience to the ministers and their families; and,

WHEREAS, Most of our charges are able to buy or build comfortable houses for their preachers ; therefore,

Resolved, That it is of great importance that each station and circuit provide for their pastors parsonages, as pleasantly located as may be, respectable in appearance and convenient in structure, having annexed to each a well of water, cistern, and cellar.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that each charge should, so far as practicable, furnish these parsonages with all necessary heavy furniture.

Resolved, That where it is necessary for the pastor to keep a horse, a good barn should be erected.

Resolved, That parsonages should be well supplied with both fruit and ornamental trees.

BOUNDARIES.

The Committee appointed to consider the question of Conference boundaries in connection with a similar Committee from the Michigan Conference, beg leave to report, that in their opinion it is inexpedient at the present time to form a new Conference in this State. We desire also to say, that in this conclusion the Committee from the Michigan Conference concur.

L. R. FISKE, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance respectfully report

To completely discontinue the pernicious social custom of manufacturing, vending and using alcoholic beverages is the ultimate design of the temperance reform—a most sacred work, to which we are urged by the importunate appeals of patriotism, philanthropy and religion. Thus far the manifest favor of God has signally attended this blessed public movement so directly in the interests of religion, humanity and good government, and it is our firm conviction, that by example and precept, by voice, press and ballot, as opportunity affords, all should aid the God-like enterprise onward to complete success ; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That voluntary total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks is the only true and safe rule of personal duty on this subject. 2. That we recommend the introduction of the triple pledge against alcohol, tobacco and profanity, into all our Sabbath Schools, and the careful inculcation of its principles on the part of all parents, pastors, officers and teachers. 3. That we recommend that in all cases unfermented wine be used in commemorating the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. 4. That we affectionately caution our people against the dangerous practice of using wines of domestic manufacture and other milder alcoholic liquors in their families, and furnishing them to their guests, as by such means they both foster the drinking usages of society and create an appetite for stronger liquors. 3. That we cordially commend to the prayerful consideration and support of our people all organizations seeking by honorable means to counteract the terrible evils of intemperance. 6. That both moral and legal means are necessary to destroy this great public vice; the persuasive force of reason and the higher power of religion for all who will be influenced by them, and civil law for those who, in defiance of a pure public sentiment, will continue to imperil the safety of society by selling intoxicating drinks. 7. That absolute statutory prohibition faithfully enforced by the police power of the government, and with as little interference as possible on the part of the private citizen, is, in our judgment, the imperious duty of the Commonwealth. 8. That in behalf of public morals we respectfully, but earnestly, protest against the recent action of our State Legislature in repealing the prohibitory liquor law, and enacting a permission or tax law in its stead, and in submitting a proposition to amend our State Constitution by removing from it the clause prohibiting the license system; and to prevent this unfortunate change of Constitution we will do our utmost to defeat it at the next State election. 9. That as all regulative or restrictive liquor laws necessarily contain two radically opposite elements—one prohibitory and the other permissive—we sincerely favor all honest endeavors to execute the police regulations of the present law of this State, and the more so, as thereby the inefficiency of the law as a whole, and the insincerity of those who demanded its enactment, will the sooner be made manifest to all thoughtful citizens.

J. M. FULLER, Chairman.

MEMOIRS.

It has pleased God to so order His Providence, as it has affected us personally, that when the question, "who have died this year?" shall be written in our "Minutes," the answer will be "none." For this we are glad, and gratefully make mention of the fact, as indicating the continuance of our Heavenly Father's love.

But dark shadows have, in several instances enveloped the Parsonage, and filled it with the loneliness and desolation of bereavement. The "Pale Horse" and his Rider have been at the homes of three of our brethren, and carried away from their circles of light and love, three pure, patient and noble wives, releasing them from trial, toil and anxiety, and taking them to a grateful and enduring rest.

As they were personally known to comparatively but few, the knowledge of their worth and works is limited but to few, compared to the great numbers who have really been benefitted by what they have done and suffered. A full account of what they have done in the inspiration and devotion of their earnest loving hearts for their husbands, children and the church where they lived, is written in God's book, but it cannot be known to us until the light of eternity shall enable us to read the record.

In the Empire of Grace, as in that of nature, the life-forces are quiet and undemonstrative; they attract but little attention, and receive but little praise. But, if they were to cease their beneficent work, sterility, desolation and death would inevitably result. Were it not for the sweet, soothing and encouraging power of home-influence, as quiet as sunlight and warmth, pervading the fretted and despondent spirit, and quickening again into life those purposes of devotion to God and his work, these too would die under the accumulated labors and disappointments of life. The light of eternity alone will show how large a portion of the work now credited to the earnest laborious minister, has really been done by the patient, uncomplaining, self-sacrificing wife. Let us be just. Let us recognize and acknowledge with gratitude the efficient help of our wives and sisters, and not be slow to place upon the roll those whom God delights to honor.

During the morning hours of February 20, last past, a company of angels assembled at the Parsonage in Monroe, and escorted the triumphant soul of Eliza, wife of our dear Bro. J. C. Wortley, to the eternal home of the pure in heaven. But as she emerged into the glory of heaven, she left her husband and children under a very dark and heavy cloud of sorrow.

Sister Wortley was united in marriage with her bereaved husband in England, about 15 years ago, and leaving all her relatives on the other side of the Atlantic, has walked hand in hand with him, during all the years of their wedded life, patiently bearing the burdens and submitting to the privations incident to an itinerant's life, and cheerfully doing the work which duty required at her hands.

Her faith was a living faith, uniting her to Christ as the branch to the vine, and her spirit was tranquil and peaceful amid all her trials. Her heart was in earnest sympathy with the work of her husband, and it was her greatest pleasure to encourage and assist him in all the departments of his labor.

But her work is done—and well done. She needed rest, and has gone to it. Our Father directs the order of our going—determining who shall precede and who follow. He cannot err. Let his will be done.

On the sixth day of May last, God sent a messenger to the Parsonage at Plymouth, with orders to release and bring sister Adaline Talure, wife of our dear brother Wesley Hagadorn. In this Providence a peaceful, happy home was desolated, and a stricken husband with three small children were left amid its desolations.

Sister Hagadorn had been the companion of her husband, in life and in labor, about eleven years, and by her devoted, loving and earnest spirit, had not only benefitted the people whom they served, but had encouraged and strengthened her husband to do and suffer for Christ. Her health was frail, and she approached the river through a wide and deep valley of suffering; but she was patient, submissive and trustful. Nor was she disappointed at her task. Her Savior was present, and in his tender arms bore her triumphantly over to her house not made with hands—eternal in the heavens.

On the 26th day of August, six days before we assembled in our present session, death entered the home of our dear brother O. J. Perrin, in Saginaw City, declaring that Clara M., the wife and mother of the family was needed in the upper sanctuary more than here. There was authority in the message which none might question or oppose, and she obeyed—leaving her husband and three children, aged respectively, 6, 4 and 2 years, to finish life's journey without her guiding hand or sympathizing heart.

Sister Perrin labored with her husband in the cause of God about ten years, and was a help meet for him. She accepted the sacrifices and privations of an itinerant life with cheerfulness, glad that in any way and at any cost she could honor Christ, and do good in the world. Very many others beside those of her home circle deplore her removal, and feel that in it they have sustained an irreparable loss. But what is our loss is her gain—what is lost to earth is gained above. Her removal is a priceless treasure transferred from earth to heaven.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We have learned with deep regret of the large diminution in the contributions to the American Bible Society within the bounds of this Conference. We regard this cause of vital importance, claiming our sustained and generous patronage. We recommend the passage of the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1st, That the American Bible Society, by the purity and comprehensiveness of its aims, its judicious and impartial management, the vast good it has accomplished in the past, and its unequalled facilities for printing and circulating the Word of God, deserves the hearty sympathy and increased contributions of the Christian public.

Resolved, 2d, That we will faithfully urge its claims upon our people during the ensuing year, and take a collection in its behalf in our respective charges.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Keeping the Sabbath day holy commends itself to the thoughtful and prudent as a means of personal and social virtue, and as an aid to public morality. When Jesus said, "The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath," and "The Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath," he made a declaration of the authority for instituting and of the purpose for observing the Christian Sabbath. The faith which accepts and the love which honors Him as Messiah and Lord, implies and includes a full acknowledgement of the sufficiency of His authority to institute and sanctify a day to His own name, and make its observance a part of the service rendered to Him. The religious system which gave special significance to the Jewish Sabbath, which made special precepts for its observance and special penalties for its violation, was indeed affected by this new declaration of the Lord, but the fundamental idea and ultimate end of the institution of the Sabbath, viz: the physical and spiritual good of mankind, are steadfastly maintained by it. The exaltation of Christ to the homage and Lordship of the race did indeed inaugurate a change in the times and forms of religious worship, but by the very change it inaugurated in forms, it opened a "more excellent way" for the development and discipline of the true religious spirit. The principle which sustains and the spirit which animates the observance of the Lord's Day is the same as that which Christ showed in doing the will of God and in exercising charity toward mankind. Keeping the Lord's Day holy, therefore, means obedience to God and good to man, and the true observance of this day is a testimonial of faith and love to Christ. It is, therefore, the duty and work of the church to encourage and maintain in every possible way the faithful and cheerful observance of this day. It is for her, as the guardian of the honor and the servant of the pleasure of her Lord, to inspire social customs with the spirit of holiness, and encourage, by precept and practice, the enactment and enforcement of such State and municipal laws and ordinances as are most favorable to the general culture of Christian virtue. It is the privilege of all "who name the name of Christ to be in the Spirit on the Lord's Day," and to abound in offerings of a true worship unto God, and in works of peace, of good will, and of charity to mankind. In consideration of these truths your committee submit the following:

1. Resolved, That as Christians we will conscientiously maintain the sanctity of the Sabbath in abstaining from all pleasures and practices at variance with the honor of Christ, and in attending to all those means of grace ordained for the promotion of His glory and the extension of His kingdom.

2. Resolved, That while we sympathize most heartily with the best people in the city of Detroit in their struggle to maintain a quiet Sabbath, and prevent the opening of saloons and other places where liquor is sold on this holy day, we desire to express our emphatic and unqualified disapproval of the course of the Legislature in enacting a law empowering city councils and village trustees to permit so vile a desecration of the Sabbath.

EDUCATION.

Your Committee submit the following report :

As a people we are justly proud of the advancement which is made among us in the cause of education. Our school system, now uniting the High School with the University, offers to all the youth of our State the skillful services of accomplished teachers and the aid of increasing libraries and apparatus. The excellent report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the year ending September, 1873, shows that of the 421,322 children in the State, 324,615 were in attendance at schools. In the instruction of this number in the primary schools were employed 11,950 teachers, at an expense of $1,765,009.59.

Our school boards are doing themselves great credit in securing the services of thoroughly qualified teachers for our graded schools; so that a diploma from our high schools is no unworthy preparation for the pursuits of business, or for the higher studies of college and university. It is also a matter of note and gratification that so many of the teachers employed in these schools are earnest and devoted Christians.

In regard to the University, the crowning glory of our school system, it is considered a just cause of complaint and reproach that the standard of scholarship for admission to the medical and law departments is not as high as it is for the literary and scientific courses of study.

As Methodists, our chief concern is with Albion College. This institution is the offspring and ward of Methodism. It is the denominational duty of every minister and layman of the church in Michigan to give earnest heed to the urgent demand there is for an intelligent and liberal policy in its management, and also for an enthusiastic support to every discreet endeavor to increase its facilities for educational purposes, and raise its standing among the literary institutions of the State. The need of such a support will be readily felt when its present situation is duly and seriously considered. The rank taken by our high schools in cities and villages—the reputation of the University of Michigan on the east of Albion, and the rising reputation of the Northwestern on the west—the disposition there is among students to avail themselves of the honors of institutions of great reputation, are facts which no prudent Methodist can overlook or disregard. The position Albion College takes among colleges will depend upon the talent she employs, the discipline she maintains, the facilities she offers, and the scholarly ability and culture she produces. With the competition and prejudice now encountered, she cannot succeed without an intelligent, earnest and united effort on the part of her friends. With only the name of Methodist, she will droop and die in the very midst of 50,000 Methodists. Pay must join with prayer for it, and intellectual power must join with devoted purity in its management. As a literary institution its merits will be measured not merely by the number of conversions in it, but by the scholarly energy which inspires it, and the literary culture which comes from it. It is in the power of the Methodists of Michigan to make Albion College the desire and the joy of our youth, and also to make a diploma with its imprint a symbol of acknowledged and valued scholarship. Your Committee desire to record their approval of the action of the Board of Trustees in adding to the faculty two men of scholarly ability and reputation, in increasing the salaries of nearly all the members of the faculty, and in proposing measures for increasing the library. The report of the Board of Trustees shows that the total number of students for the last year is 202. The report shows an excess of $2,419.61 expenditures over receipts. The estimated receipts for the coming year are $18,000, and the amount appropriated for faculty is $12,300. The remaining $5,700 will be applied to the payment of incidental purposes, etc. The total amount of the various funds now in hand is $186,051.15. The report calls the special attention of the Committee, and of the Conference through the Committee, to the pressing want of the institution, especially with reference to the chemical and philosophical apparatus—museum and library. "We must have," says the report, "these appliances in a much larger measure than now, or retrograde. Our college students are unwilling to spend time and money when they cannot have these advantages, and no faculty can hold them with the promise of a better day when that better day is always a 'to-morrow,'" The action of the Board, with especial reference to these pressing wants of the College, is seen in the adoption of the following reports and resolutions :

"Report of Committee on Library and Aparatus to the Board.

"Your Committee having received communications from the Librarian and a large number of students, setting forth that there is a great deficiency in the library of the institution, would respectfully recommend that the Detroit and Michigan Annual Conferences be requested to take collections of either money or books in their various charges during the ensuing year, for the purpose of meeting, as far as possible, the said deficiency; and that the President and Professors be invited to visit our churches as generally as is consistent with their other duties in the interest of this work.

Resolved, That Revs. T. F. Hildreth, of Michigan Conference, and J. C. Wortley, of Detroit Conference, be and are hereby requested to present this matter to their several Conferences for action.

[SIGNED,]

J. S. SMART,
O. C. GALE,
W. H. BROCKWAY,
Committee.

The following resolution was also adopted by the Board :

Resolved, That a committee of five, of which Hon. C. R. Brown shall be chairman, be appointed, whose duty it shall be to devise and report to the Board, at its semi-annual meeting in January next, a plan for the initiation and building up, and management and control of a library endowment fund, the interest of which shall be annually devoted to the purchase of books for the College library.

Hon. C. R. Brown, Rev. Seth Reed, Dr. Geo. B. Jocelyn, Prof. Geo. B. Merriman, and Hon. O. A. Critchett were appointed the committee.

At a meeting of the Committee the following plan was received, and at the request of this Committee is submitted to the Conference for its consideration and approval.

The report of the Board of Trustees also states that "It is very much to be desired that the official visitors appointed by each Conference should be present at the examinations during the year, and make a full report to the Conference of the condition and workings of the College. Of the seven visitors appointed by the Detroit Conference last year only two were present, viz : Rev. A. B. Wood and J. C. Wortley, and they not at the same time."

In consideration of this fact, the Board request each Conference to appoint three official visitors, and insist on their visiting the College and making a report to the Conference. The Board will pay their expenses. In accordance with this request, your Committee recommend the following as visitors during the ensuing year: Dr. L. R. Fiske, of Detroit, Miss S. A. Rulison, and Rev. J. C. Wortley.

The terms of office of the following Trustees expire this fall, viz: Rev. Seth Reed and James W. Sheldon, Esq.

Your Committee recommend the re-election of Rev. S. Reed and the election of Rev. A. J. Bigelow, to fill these vacancies occurring by expiration of time.

With this report is submitted the papers placed in the hands of your Committee.

We are gratified to hear of the continued prosperity of that finely endowed and growing institution, the Northwestern University. It is rapidly taking its place in the first rank of American Universities. We assure it of our sympathies, and bespeak for it the highest success in its competitive race with institutions which recognize only the secular idea in education.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Church extension is one of the necessary manifestations of Christian life. Christianity demands a living ministry, and a living ministry demands houses of divine worship, where it can preach to souls, dead in trespasses and sins, the Word of Life. These houses must be multiplied, or Christianity cannot make aggressions on the kingdom of darkness. New centres of light and power must be created; and this is what "Church Extension" means. Its true idea is not to relieve existing churches, but to increase their number. No existing church, therefore, should receive aid from the Church Extension Society, unless it is a case of extreme necessity.

Your Committee, in view of the large number of churches already embarrassed by debt, would recommend our people to avoid unnecessary expense in church building, so that the success of our ministers and the spiritual progress of the church may not be hindered by that fearful incubus—a church debt.

Of necessity, Church Extension means that our people must pray, and work, and give. Mind and heart, and money, must be consecrated to this Christly work. That they may have the opportunity for so doing, our General Conference has made it obligatory on all the pastors to bring the subject once a year before them, and take a collection. We regret exceedingly that only 77 charges have reported collections.

It is a sad reflection upon us as a Conference, that the past year, instead of raising our appropriation, we have fallen far below it. We must in the future raise more money for this grand connectional purpose, else we must cease our fault-finding when the Society fails to respond to our applications. The northern part of our State is in great need of houses of worship, and unless Methodists in the richer portions of the State render assistance to those who are struggling in the north, they will fail to do their duty.

Our collections the past year instead of being $2,500, are only $643. Flint District has raised for the church at Williamston $97.46. We hope that the coming year every minister will do his duty by presenting to his congregation the pressing claims of the Board of Church Extension and taking a collection.

We call the attention of the Conference to the request made by this Board as contained in Dr. Kynett's circular. It asks the Conference to consider the provision made by the last General Conference to constitute a "special corporation, or otherwise to take such measures as it may deem wise and necessary to procure the insurance of churches and other church property against loss by fire," and also asks of it counsel with regard to the propriety of forming such a corporation, or any other matter pertaining to the subject:

We offer for adoption the following resolutions :

Resolved, That we appreciate the importance of the work which the Board of Church Extension is doing, and that we will manifest our appreciation by commending it to our people as worthy of their prayers and liberality.

Resolved, That we appoint a committee to consider the communication of the Board of Church Extension, and to furnish it such facts and suggestions as it may deem proper.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

Your Committee are gratified in being able to report that the Sunday School cause throughout our Conference is in a healthy state. We have reason to believe that during the past year it has received its usual share of service from our pastors and people, though we regret the decrease in collections.

The Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School Union gives a very encouraging report for the year ending December, 1874. From this report it appears that during the year there was an increase of 539 schools, 6,050 officers and teachers, and more than 56,000 scholars. God has owned and greatly blessed the labors of our Sunday School workers during the past year. And as workers in the cause we are greatly encouraged in view of the increased facilities offered us in the Berean Lesson system. We cannot commend it too highly, and express our hope that it may be faithfully operated in all our charges. As the Sunday School Classmate and Good News are no longer published, we call special attention to the Sunday School Advocate, which is now published as a weekly. We would also recommend as in every way worthy the patronage of our people, the Sunday Guest, published by J. M. Arnold & Co., and edited by Rev. J. B. Atchinson and H. Hitchcock, of Detroit. Your Committee desire to express their high appreciation of the valuable services of the Rev. J. M. Arnold, so long and faithfully rendered as Sunday School Agent of this Conference. And as we are informed that his present duties forbid his further continuance in this relation, we would recommend the appointment of the Rev. J. B. Atchinson as Sunday School Agent for the coming Conference year. As pastors of the flock of Christ we cannot neglect the Sunday School cause and be guiltless. May our labors and success in this cause be more abundant for the year to come.

Concerning our Tract cause, your Committee would report, that money to the amount of $164.71 has been collected within the Conference during the past year. We urgently urge upon every pastor the importance of taking a collection in behalf of this cause. And as the Tract Society, upon application, will furnish each pastor with tracts to one-half the value of his collection to be used upon his work, at the same time giving him credit in the Minutes for the whole collection, we urge upon our brethren the importance of availing themselves of this provision, and of scattering these messages of salvation freely among all our people. They will go where we cannot, and will often plead with greater effectiveness than the most eloquent preacher.

Respectfully submitted,

A. F. BOURNS, Chairman.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

The greatest political and moral event which illumines any page of the world's history, outside of the Sacred volume, transpired in this nation on the first day of January, 1863, when President Lincoln, by one dash of his official pen, struck the chains of slavery from the limbs of four millions of human beings, and converted them from chattels personal, into free men, women, and children. It is for the benefit of these freed people that the Freedmen's Aid Society exists, and on their behalf it makes its appeal to the church and to the nation.

In the early stages of the discussion of the slavery question which preceded the Rebellion, the advocates of emancipation had to meet the objection that the slaves were unfit to enjoy freedom, and that they must first be prepared. The emancipationists were always ready to reply, that human beings, however degraded, are better fitted to enjoy freedom than to endure slavery, and that, if slavery had rendered the slaves unfit for liberty, keeping them longer therein would not prepare them for freedom. Well, the slaves were legally freed in a day, and while there has been less confusion than the pro-slavery men predicted, and even less than the most ardent emancipationist expected, there was, and there still is, great difficulties in the way of the freedmen, which call for help. As the thing is now irrevocably done, those who declared them unfit for freedom should contribute to aid in fitting them for their new position, and those who declared them better fitted for freedom than slavery, should contribute to make good their predictions and hopes; and all should contribute for the good of humanity and the nation.

In making an appeal on behalf of these emancipated millions, it is necessary to glance at their former condition. They were necessarily deeply degraded, intellectually, socially, and religiously. They were rendered intellectually dark by law-enforced ignorance. They were denied a knowledge of letters. Their ignorance was regarded as so essential to their value as slaves, that it was made a penal offense to teach a slave to read.

They were, necessarily, in the lowest depth of social degradation. The law allowed them no social interests or positions above brutes. Their very existence was for their masters and not for themselves. The law defined the condition of slaves as follows: "A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs; the master may sell him, dispose of his labor, his industry; he can do nothing, possess nothing, nor acquire anything but what must belong to his master." They had no right of family relations. No slave had a lawful husband or wife, and no slave parents had a right to their children, and no slave children had a right to the care and protection of their parents. They had no right or power to preserve their own social virtue. The law enacted, that "if any colored person, male or female, shall lift his or her hand in opposition to any white man, he or she, so offending, on conviction before a justice of the peace, on the oath of the party, shall receive thirty-nine lashes on his or her bare back, well laid on, by order of the justice." All these legal disabilities could not fail to sink them to the lowest depth of social degradation.

As was their intellectual and social degradation, so must their religious degradation have been. They could not read, and they had no bibles to read. They could not own a Bible. They could "possess nothing, nor acquire anything but what must belong to the master." It was a penal offense to give a Bible to a slave. Of course they could have no religious teachers of their own class capable of teaching them, and no adequate provision was made for their instruction by competent white preachers. Missionaries were not allowed free access to them. If any person had attempted to visit those dark plantations with an open Bible in his hand and a free gospel in his heart, slavery would have lifted up its snaky head, and lapped out its forked tongue in his path, and hissed, "You cannot go there." Indeed, they had no time or powers which they could appropriate for the worship of God. In the eye of the law they were wholly unknown as moral and religious beings, accountable to God. The law knew them only as property, yet held them accountable and punishable as vicious animals.

These degraded millions were emancipated in a day—not by the consent of their previous owners, but by force of arms against their wills, who were maddened and infuriated at their loss, which rendered their condition much worse than it would have been had they been emancipated by repentant masters from a conviction of the moral wrong of slavery. They are now a national element, and wield the power of the sovereign ballot, and hence are a political power for weal or woe, as they shall become educated and refined or remain ignorant and degraded. They have a strong claim for help in their struggle to rise to the dignity of worthy and useful citizens, having been brought into their degraded condition under our national flag without their agency, consent or fault.

They are making rapid improvement in proportion to the help rendered them and the facilities within their reach. The prospects are, that in a few years the work will be supplied by teachers and ministers raised up of their own class, and that they will be able to run their own literary and religious institutions without aid from the frigid north.

The emancipation and rapid improvement of these sable millions shed light on the brightening prospects of the world's salvation. I do not and cannot believe that God is the author of moral evil; yet I do and must believe that He does overrule moral evil for the furtherance of His own gracious plans and the good of the world; and in this remark I include the dark and God-defying and man-crushing system of American slavery. "The wrath of man shall praise Thee, and the remainder of wrath shalt Thou restrain." When we contemplate the developments of the Providence of God for the last few years, we can only exclaim with awe-stricken soul and voice, in the language of Paul: "O, the depths of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out!" Their burning religious zeal will not, can not be long confined to the blood-stained soil whereon their fathers and mothers spent their sweat and unrequited toil from life's cloudy dawn to its dark going down. It will leap those bounds, flash across the tide, and light the Mountains of the Moon, and dark and long-neglected and injured Africa will be enlightened and renovated by the returning tide of her own humanity, flowing back redeemed and elevated to bless its fountain; then will "Ethiopia stretch out her hand to God."

Eighty-eight charges, out of one hundred and seventy-six, have reported collections as follows:

Detroit Annual Conference,

Cash and drafts.....	$435 35
Vouchers for sums forwarded.....	38 09
Making a total of.....	$473 44
To this sum is added the Conference collection.....	55 10
Making a grand total of.....	$528 54
This gives us an increase over last year of.....	214 45

This appears encouraging; yet the sum is small compared with our apportionment of two thousand dollars, which remains the same for the year to come.

Your Committee hope some measures will be devised to secure more liberal contributions in the future. It is recommended that the cause of the Freedmen be placed upon the list of Conference societies, by the election of a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and three managers.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LUTHER LEE, Chairman.

LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE.

This Conference was held in Court St. M. E. Church, Flint, Friday, Sept. 3d, One hundred and three members presented proper credentials and were admitted to seats in the Conference.

Hon. B. W. Huston, of Vassar was elected President, and Geo. O. Robinson, Esq., Secretary.

David Preston, of Detroit, and G. W. Fish, of Flint, were chosen delegates to the General Conference. Hon. B. W. Huston and J. C. Clark were elected reserves.

The Secretary read the following resolution, which was presented by Dr. W. K. Wheat, and adopted at an adjourned session of the Quarterly Conference of Bay City M. E. Church, August 16, 1875.

Resolved, That this Quarterly Conference instruct the lay delegates that it regards the office of Presiding Elder as unnecessary, and an expense that cannot be well borne, and we ask the co-operation of all the lay delegates at the Annual and General Conferences toward the removal or modification of the same.

The above resolution did not receive a second.

Mr. L. A. Barber, of Bay City, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this body of Laymen regard the office of Presiding Elder, as now administered, as an unnecessary adjunct to our system. We are of the opinion that the office should be modified by either largely diminishing the number of districts, or appointing the Presiding Elders to stations, making their duties to their districts merely advisory, and their remuneration only the necessary traveling expenses incurred thereby.

Resolved, That our lay delegates to the General Conference are hereby instructed to use their influence and votes at the said General Conference, for some modification of the office of Presiding Elder that will cut off or largely diminish the expenses of the office, still leaving it effective.

W. B. Clark, of Ypsilanti, spoke in favor of the resolutions.

W. L. Murphy, of Williamston, was opposed to any change in the Presiding Elder's office.

Geo. O. Robinson, of Detroit, hoped no change would be made.

J. C. Woodhull, of Detroit, favored some kind of a modification.

Mr. Crawford, of Milford, thought none of the leading features of Methodism should be changed.

Mr. J. H. Higgins spoke in favor of the present system.

Prof. H. S. Tarbell, of East Saginaw, offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That Bishop Harris be requested to so combine and re-arrange the districts in this Conference as to reduce their number.

After some further discussion, the substitute and original resolutions were both tabled, by a large majority.

Mr. W. L. Murphy offered a resolution respectfully requesting the presiding Bishop of the Detroit Annual Conference, at its present session, to increase the number of Presiding Elders in the lower peninsula to ten.

The resolution was laid on the table without debate.

Mr. Skinner offered a resolution requesting the Bishop of the Conference to reduce the number of districts to five. Laid on the table.

Mr. Geo. W. Robinson, of Detroit, offered a preamble and resolution as follows :

WHEREAS, The laity are equally interested with the clergy in the appointing power, and the administration of the church, therefore,

Resolved, That we very respectfully request the General Conference, which is to assemble at St. Louis, in May, 1876, to make provision for the introduction of lay delegates into our Annual Conferences.

The resolution was seconded by G. O. Robinson, with some appropriate remarks concerning the benefits which would arise from lay delegates in our Annual Conferences having equal powers with the ministry.

The resolution was almost unanimously adopted.

On motion of Dr. Fish, the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be published in the Minutes of the Annual Conference.

After singing "Hold the Fort," the Conference adjourned sine die, with benediction by Rev. J. S. Smart.

G. O. ROBINSON, Secretary.

DETROIT CONFERENCE REGISTER.[As modified at final adjournment, 1875.]*

NOTE.—“Div.” in the sixth column indicates the fact that such members fell into the Detroit Conference by the division of 1856.

Will members help the Secretary to fill all blanks. The same request is made to probationers. The fifth column shows time of admission to membership, not to probation. Give names IN FULL.

All who joined the Detroit Conference in full connection had at least two years of prior service as preachers on probation. Those who joined other Conferences may have done very many years of service before coming here.
